Coaching Chip Number 2

1. Ending or Restarting the Coaching

There comes a time to decide whether the coaching is over or needs to continue with renewed focus.

Go No Go Considerations

1. Will we continue?

Simple question; Are we done? Or is there more we can do together? The Measure Progress discussion of Coaching Chip 1 will go along way to answer this question.

2. If the decision is made to continue, reset the Goals.

As per Coaching Chip 1, these should be SMART: Specific. Measurable. Actionable. Realistic. Timely.

3. And if you've decided to continue, maybe making a new start, a new Strategy Map of the coaching using the CAR analysis will be helpful.

- Lets think Creatively for a moment about next steps.
- Lets make a list of Action plans we want to examine.
- Lets Reflect on all the we've learned before we finalize our strategy.

4. If the decision is made to stop, make a summary of all the key learning in coaching process to date.

Take the time to review all that has gone on and catalogue, with agreement, the key points, its learning and importance.
